

COALITION FOR JUVENILE JUSTICE

Member at Large Information

All interested individuals—both youth and adults—are invited to join the Coalition for Juvenile Justice as Members at Large.

It is the mission of the Coalition for Juvenile Justice (CJJ) to build safe communities one child at a time. We do so by:

- ✓ Promoting best policies and practices to reduce juvenile delinquency.
- ✓ Educating the public and advising policy makers on urgent issues in juvenile justice.
- ✓ Assisting U.S. states and territories in meeting the core requirements of the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act.
- ✓ Instituting critical system reforms to improve the quality, cultural sensitivity and scope of community-based and court-based services for children, youth and families.
- ✓ Linking national, state and local advocates and organizations together, across many disciplines, to pursue a common mission.

Member at Large benefits include:

- Reduced registration fees at conferences and events
- CJJ's electronic newsletter, the Juvenile Justice eMonitor
- CJJ's reports and publications, gratis
- CJJ's organizational reference directory
