

2021 CJJ Annual Conference

Creating Healing Systems: Serving Today's Youth While Transforming the Future
June 9-11, 2021

This year's conference will be Virtual

Exhibitor/Sponsor General Information

Each year, the Coalition for Juvenile Justice is proud to host a national conference uniquely focused on improving outcomes for children, youth, and families. Held in our nation's capital, this event brings together more than 350 national, state, and local leaders interested in juvenile justice and youth development.

CJJ invites you to consider sponsoring our virtual 2021 Annual Conference on June 9-11. Your sponsorship is an easy and affordable way to promote your program, publication, or institution to a targeted professional audience while supporting CJJ's continuing efforts towards juvenile justice reform and leadership development. Sponsorship dollars help support a broad range of necessary functions, including materials production, speaker and workshop support, youth engagement, and other general functions.

Attendees come from across the country, including the U.S. territories, and include local and state level government employees, elected officials, researchers, law enforcement and probation officers, community organizers, social workers, youth advocates, non-profit and national foundation staff, etc. Many are also active on their Governor-mandated State Advisory Groups (SAGs), helping to guide policy making and distribute federal funding at the state and local levels.

This year, CJJ also has a limited number of exhibitor spaces available on June 9-11. Exhibiting at CJJ's Annual Conference allows your organization an even greater opportunity to reach CJJ's members and partners. The Exhibit Hall is located in a prime location, ideally situated alongside the conference registration areas and outside of the general session and breakout rooms.

Each sponsorship or exhibitor level includes a CJJ membership (various restrictions apply, based on the level of support). Please click here for more information about the benefits provided with CJJ membership. Additional information about sponsorships and exhibiting are below. CJJ reserves the right to only accept exhibitors or sponsors whose work is in line with our core principles.

About the Coalition for Juvenile Justice (CJJ)

CJJ envisions a nation where fewer children are at risk of delinquency; and if they are at risk or involved with the justice system, they and their families receive every possible opportunity to live safe, healthy and fulfilling lives.

CJJ is a nationwide coalition of State Advisory Groups (SAGs), individuals, organizations, and allies dedicated to preventing children and youth from becoming involved in the courts and upholding the highest standards of care when youth are charged with wrongdoing and enter the justice system.

CJJ members include concerned individuals, practitioners, advocates, and youth who voluntarily serve at the state and national levels. CJJ is governed by an Executive Board of national and regional officers. All of CJJ's formal positions on policy and related matters are developed and approved by a majority of the CJJ Council of State Advisory Groups (SAGs). The Council comprises the Chairs or Chair-designees of SAGs holding membership in CJJ.
